THIS MATTER is before the Court on its own motion. On February 13, 2007, the Honorable Frank D. Whitney, United States District Judge, entered an Order [Doc. 4] denying the plaintiff's Application to Proceed Without Prepayment of Fees and Affidavit [Doc. 2], filed February 9, 2007. Specifically, the Court concluded that the plaintiff's in forma pauperis ("IFP") application was incomplete, as he failed to provide the Court with a full report of his financial status.

Accordingly, the Court denied the plaintiff's IFP application and further ordered as follows:

That within thirty (30) days of the date of this Order, the plaintiff must remit the $350.00 filing fee for this action. In the alternative, the plaintiff may submit an amended IFP Application which explains exactly how he currently is sustaining himself. Failure either to remit the filing fee or to submit an amended IFP Application within thirty (30) days could result in the summary dismissal of this action.

[Doc. 4] (emphasis in original).

Since the Court's Order of February 13, 2007, the plaintiff has neither paid the required $350.00 filing fee for this action, nor has the plaintiff submitted an amended IFP Application explaining how he currently sustains himself. Accordingly,

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that this case be DISMISSED without prejudice.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Signed: September 24, 2007

Martin Reidinger
United States District Judge
